TORRANCE LAUNDRY

Announces

THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT of Their

48 HOUR Laundry Service

When Requested, on Both Cash & Carry and Home Delivery

... THIS IS THE WAY WE WASH YOUR CLOTHES

Carefully, thoroughly, in pure mild soap suds in the softest of waters, your clothes are given four different suds baths and six separate rinses. They're hygienically clean when you get them, wet, dry, or pressed. You won't have wasted time doing laundry work; you'll have put in full days at war work and home work you cannot relegate to someone else. Yet you'll have clean clothes and bedding for higher efficiency, better health.

Annual World Prayer Day Is Observed Here

The annual World Day of Prayer will be held in the Baptist church Friday, tomorrow, at 10:30 a. m., with six churches participating. A box lunch will be served at noon and Missionary A. K. Reiton, guest speaker, will talk at 1 p. m. He was in Hong Kong at the time of Japanese occupation and was returned on the Gripsholm.

All of the pastors will give short messages on prayer, and the ladies missionary groups of the various churches will have charge of special programs. There will be Scripture, music and prayer. Churches represented are: Foursquare, Christian, Methodist, Nazarene, Evangelical and Baptist.

Staff Sgt. Dunlop Visits Relatives

Sgt. Paul Dunlop, 1346 W. 225th st., Torrance, has arrived in the United States on furlough from the European Theatre of Operations where he served 7 months as a B-17 Engineer-gunner with the Eighth Air Force, completing 35 missions, totaling 250 combat flying hours.

Following 21 days' furlough with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom E. Watson, here, Dunlop will report at Santa Ana Army Air Base for a new assignment.

GEORGE B. SMITH... serving in A. A. F. recently arrived at a base in England and has been advanced to sergeant, according to word to his mother, Mrs. Louis J. Smith, of 1754 Gramercy ave.

VICTOR KASPER... a Technical Sergeant, A. A. F., stationed at Yuma, Ariz., spent the weekend here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kasper of 1736 Gramercy ave.

Torrance A.C. Makes Good In Basketball

The Torrance Athletic Club basketball team is making good progress despite the fact that the team was not organized until late in the season. The blue and white clad "T.A.C." five, coached by Elmer "Red" Moon was defeated in the initial contest with the Sixth Ferrying Command of Long Beach by the score of 45 to 23. This first game was played after only one practice session. Then the boys began "bringing home the bacon" by winning their next three games with the following results:

T.A.C., 45 vs. 70th Harborcraft L.A.P.E., 28.

T.A.C., 44 vs. L.A.P.E. Base Hospital, 29.

T.A.C., 42 vs. Hq. Det. L.A.P.E., 28.

The schedule of games yet to be played are as follows:

Feb. 19—V.R.3 Naval Air at Poly high.

Feb. 20—Co. 3180 L. A. P. E. at Torrance.

Feb. 28—Union 76 at Long Beach Armory.

March 7—Wolves of San Pedro at Long Beach Armory.

A doubleheader practice game will be held Friday, Feb. 16 on the local court. Opponents will be Hq. Det. L. A. P. E. at 7:30 and Consolidated Steel at 8:30. No charge will be made for these games.

The lineup of the local team will be as follows: Forwards—Acosta and Shaw; Center—Moon; Guards—Dean, Wooten, Fees, Stanley or Morris. Marty Acosta, "all Southern California" high school at Redondo Beach in 1944 is the high point man of the team, and Coach Moon has built a well balanced, hard playing team around him. Anyone interested in playing basketball with this team should report on Tuesdays and Fridays at the Torrance high school gymnasium for practice games.

Light Sedan Hits And Overtakes Gasoline Trailer

A light sedan struck and overturned a trailer loaded with gasoline at 190th st. and Hawthorne blvd. Thursday, and the driver of the car while injured narrowly escaped more serious injuries because the gasoline did not ignite, according to police reports.

The truck and trailer was driven by Julius Munoz, of 920 115th St., and the car was operated by Mrs. Daisy Urata, 8436 Harold Way, Los Angeles. Injured in the accident, she was taken to Torrance Memorial hospital for treatment. Torrance police guarded the spilled gasoline for many hours to prevent fire resulting from the accident.

EXTENSION

Joe Reynolds, occupying a trailer, was given a 60-day extension from an order to remove his trailer from property occupied in WALTERIA, by the City Council Tuesday night, on the statement of the man that he had secured a building permit and is attempting to erect a dwelling on the land.
